Lad Celebrates 10th Year With Gift of 10 Octupi

By VERA WRIGHT

June and Chick Miller, of 4135 W. 173rd St., are certainly to be commended for the fine work on their addition to their landscaping, a new lamp-post and a name sign.

Best wishes to David Taylor whose foot came in contact with a large nail and a trip to the emergency hospital was in order.

The entire neighborhood became owners of baby octopus when Jimmy Davis was taken to Marineland for his birthday visit. Father Davis thought he was through buying when he purchased one octopus but his son decided 10 would be better and since it was his birthday, 10 it was!

Fay Nielsen was very happy to be able to take her mother, Mrs. Frank Smith from West Virginia, to see the television show "Queen for a Day" since it was held in the Moulin Rouge, where they also enjoyed lunch.

Feggy and Bill Kennedy had a splendid week end of horse-back riding at Griffith Park and followed it with a trip to Mars at the planetarium and ended the affair with a pizza eating contest at the home of the Tony Brazzins.
